 JOHN S. PERDYKE, GENERAL COUNSEL

September 30, 1963

Honorable John A. McCone, Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

The Subcommittee on Employment and Manpower, of which I am Chairman, has been engaged for some months in a series of hearings on numerous manpower problems.

In the course of these hearings, we have become interested in the way in which other nations handle the same problems of manpower development, utilization and allocation which we face in this country. It occurs to me that you no doubt have experts in these matters who are investigating the manpower policies and programs of Communist-bloc countries. I doubt that your staff reports in this area would be of an overly sensitive nature. It would be very helpful to our Subcommittee in its deliberations if we could receive from time to time copies of any studies or reports produced within the CIA concerning this range of problems, which are not of a nature requiring secrecy.

We will appreciate whatever help you can give us in this regard.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH S. CLARK

Remarks: I am talking with Senator Clark's staff regarding this letter and calling their attention to the four Policy Machinery Subcommittee studies which were issued by the Jackson Subcommittee. It is possible that they might desire something further from us. In the meantime, your people might be thinking of any other possibilities. I will let you know the results of my discussion with the staff.
